

Mountsackville off to a winning start

SUNDAY dawned bright and very frost for the first of the TRI Equestrian Interschools competition events to be held after Christmas at Broadmeadows Equestrian Centre.

The open teams competition started the day with the showjumping track built by Brian Duff proving challenging with only one team on a nil score. First and clear winners were the Mountsackville Secondary School team of Anna Byrne, Robyn McKenna, Amy Ward and Abbie Mallaghan. Second place went to Maynooth Education Campus with Emma Keogh, Alice McFadden, Katie Deane and Ellen Murphy.

The open individual section was won by Jazmine Arthur and her pony Cara Cave Boy, with Georgina Wilkinson of St Gerard's Bray taking second.

The novice team competition was won by a new school to the league, Our Lady's Secondary School Castleblayney, with riders Jennifer Duffy,

Grainne Lacey, Ellanna Fox and Sophie Moore, with Mountsackville Secondary School taking second place with a three-rider team of Jill McKenna, Isabelle Ward and Roisin Cormican.

The 1.10cms HSI Qualifier was won by Georgia Wilkinson of St Gerard's Bray, with second place going to Niamh Flinter of Newbridge College.

The next leg of the league takes place tomorrow (Sunday, January 14th) in Killossery Lodge Stud.

The winning open team at the TRI Equestrian Inters schools held in Broadmeadows EC, Mountsackville Secondary School's (l-r) Abbie Mallaghan, Anna Byrne, Amy Ward and Robyn McKenna